ALEPPO'S SIXTH ANNUAL CIRCUS At Boston Garden Sept. 30 Through Oct. 6

Col. Robert H. Morton Promises World's Outstanding All-Professional 3-Ring Circus

THE biggest and best circus acts and the greatest thrills in the world will be seen at Aleppo's sixth annual circus in Boston Garden to be held this year from Monday, September 30 to Sunday, October 6 inclusive. If you have attended one of these Shrine Circuses in the past, you won't want to miss this one with its new and outstanding features, some of which have never before been seen in the city of Boston. If you have never seen a Shrine Circus, don't fail to come this year and we promise you, you will never want to miss another.

Judge Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr., Past Potentate of Aleppo and chairman of the Aleppo Shrine Circus has just received a list of the acts featured this year which includes an outstanding DOUBLE-BARRELLED climax; the great EGERLY ZACHHINI, "MISS VICTORY," shot from the mouth of a monster cannon 195 feet through the air and the Great CAPTAIN SOLOMON in his sensational Fire Dive from the top rafters of Boston Garden.

Other outstanding features seen for the first time in this city are the LOYAL REPENSKY TROUPE consisting of 10 people and 8 horses in a great bareback riding act; and the famous MIRTH BROTHERS, a new comedy pantomime from Broadway that is worth the price of admission alone.

We have also obtained OSTERMAIER AND HIS HORSE, including DOHEES, the beautiful Arabian Dancing Stallion and FLORIAN the famous Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer movie horse.

You will see in this year's circus that outstanding animal trainer, JOE WALSCH AND THE LARGEST GROUP OF LIONS AND TIGERS in the largest steel wire cage in the world; FRANK COOK, the famous Comedy "Drunk" on the high wire; the KIMRIS, a trapeze act suspended from an aeroplane in mid-air; LA TOSCA, "QUEEN OF THE CIRCUS" on the bounding wire; the FLYING LAMARS; the GREAT FRANCISCO; JANET and PAUL, in a new aerial sensation; BOBBY WHALING and VIVETTE in their extraordinary comedy bicycle feature; the FLYING HARTZELLS; the LAWRENCE TRIO; CAPTAIN JOHN TEIBOR and his miraculous TRAINED SEALS and many other sensational and amazing acts never before assembled in one gigantic All-Professional 3-ring circus. A three-hour show of thrills, sensations and comedy topped off with the biggest group of fun-making clowns ever seen in one circus.

Noble, don't miss it. Come to the big Shrine Circus this year. Bring your family, your neighbors family and all of your friends to see what Aleppo can do in promoting an outstanding Circus in Boston Garden, Monday, September 30 to Sunday, October 6 inclusive.

SHRINE CIRCUS SPONSORS ANIMAL-NAMING CONTEST. PAIR OF RARE SICILIAN DONKEYS TO BE PRESENTED TO ZOO

INCIDENT to its annual all-professional circus at the Boston Garden, which this year opens for a full week on Monday, September 30 through Sunday, October 6, Aleppo Temple of the Shrine has earlier presented to the Franklin Park Zoo a Camel in 1942, a Chimpanzee in 1943, an Eland or African Elk in 1944, and a second baby Camel in 1945.

Winners of the $25.00 War Bond, given each year as a first prize in the animal-naming contest, have been Maynard Strout of Somerville for "Jeep," the Camel; Marion McPhail of West Roxbury for "Bondie," the Chimpanzee; Nancy Gildea of Jamaica Plain for "Congo," the African Elk; and Edward Kelleher of Dorchester last year for "Vee Vee," the baby Camel.

This year Park Commissioner William P. Long, who was asked to make a suggestion, promptly suggested a pair of the Sicilian Donkeys which have proved to be such a fine attraction for the kiddies at the St. Louis Zoo, Forest Park at Springfield, Massachusetts, and other parks throughout the country.

The pair of Sicilian Donkeys purchased by Aleppo Temple are about two months old, stand about 2½ feet high, and now weigh only 75 pounds.

The Sicilian Donkey is the most fascinating little pet in the world for children, who can ride on its back or hitch it to tiny wicker carts. These dwarf donkeys, used along the tortuous mountain paths in Sicily, are very hardy. In their native land they require no housing in summer or winter, and eat little food. The prevailing color is a rich heather gray, and the little donkeys grow to weigh about 200 pounds. The little fellows grow their own shaggy warm winter overcoat when cold days come. The Sicilian Donkey, despite his all size, is a veritable powerhouse of strength. He is as surefooted as a goat, and can pull a wicker cart with four or five youngsters in it.

As usual, Aleppo Temple offers a $25.00 government bond for first prize in this animal-naming contest and 202 other prizes to the runners-up. Children who wish to take part in the novel competition are to write their name, address and age on a piece of paper; then write the pair of names they suggest for the pair of Sicilian Donkeys; and finally a letter of not more than 25 words on "Why the Zoo Should Have Sicilian Donkeys."

The names submitted are the important factor. But in the event the winning name is suggested by more than one child, the letter will decide the winner of first prize.

The contest will be open to any boy or girl under fifteen and a child may submit as many different pairs of names as he or she desires. Contest closes midnight, Wednesday, September 25. Prizes will be awarded October 1.

Prizes: $25 bond for first; $10 Savings Stamp, second; $5 stamp for third, 50 prizes of $1 plus a pair of reserved seats to the circus, and 150 prizes of a pair of reserved seats to the circus — a total of 203 prizes in all. The three top winners also receive three box seats each.

The Donkeys will be at the Boston Garden during the entire week of the Aleppo Shrine Circus and exhibited to the children at each performance.

The Judges for the contest will be: Park Commissioner William P. Long, Superintendent of Boston Schools Arthur L. Gould and the Chairman of the Shrine Circus Judge Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr.

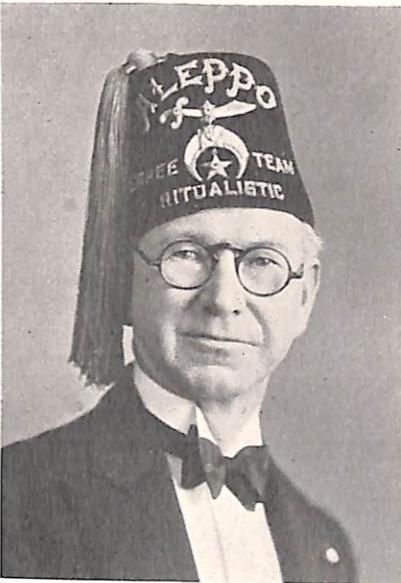

ALEPO RITUALISTIC DEGREE TEAM FEATURE OF ANAH CEREMONIAL AT ANNUAL N.S.A. FALL FIELD DAY

ONCE again that outstanding group of Ritualists, the Aleppo Temple Ritualistic Degree Team took top honors for its magnificent portrayal of the Shrine ritual at the ceremonial of Anah Temple, held in the Bangor Auditorium, Saturday, August 10.

The Ceremonial which was held in connection with the two-day Annual Fall Meeting of the Northeastern Shrine Association was given in honor of the Imperial Potentate, Illustrous Noble George H. Rowe of Ismailia Temple, Buffalo.

Illustrous Potentate Maurice King of Anah Temple, Bangor, the host temple to the Association, chose the Aleppo Team for the high honor of playing before the Imperial Potentate, after he had witnessed one of their performances at an Aleppo meeting. Potentate King, in thanking Director Wilfred C. Mills and his fellow actors, said that their outstanding performance was the high light of the two-day celebration and that he was proud to have them initiate Anah Temples banner class of candidates on this unusual occasion.

Many of the officers and Nobles of Aleppo who were present and witnessed this special rendition by the Team were unanimous in their opinion that this was the best production they had ever given since their initial performance in 1935.

Imperial Potentate Rowe, who listened intently throughout the entire meeting, went back stage to personally congratulate the Nobles in the Team and especially remarked on the superlative job Noble Mills did in his portrayal of Illustrous Potentate in the ritual work.

Members of the Ritual Team in addition to Noble Mills and the part they played were: Francis E. Homer, Chief Rabban; Charles Ross, Assistant Rabban; Arthur Wolfe, High Priest and Prophet; Ernest K. Rogers, Oriental Guide; William H. Wallis, 1st Ceremonial Master; Dwight L. Woodberry, 2nd Ceremonial Master and Hans C. Kleemann, Marshal.

One of the features of the Team is the magnificent character make-up given each member of the cast by Noble Murl Daniels who is known as the most celebrated make-up artist in this part of the country.

Have YOU Joined The Circus Daddy Club?

BE A DADDY TO SOME UNFORTUNATE YOUNGSTERS BY SENDING THEM TO ALEppo'S 6TH ANNUAL CIRCUS AS YOUR GUEST!

DADDY CLUB MEMBERS List No. 2

FOR the past five years the Nobles of Aleppo have been host to over 100,000 orphaned, underprivileged and crippled youngsters at their big all-professional circus held in Boston Garden the first week in October each year. What a wonderful feeling a Shriner gets when he realizes he has been a Circus Daddy to some of these youngsters who otherwise would never have had the chance to attend a real big top-notch circus in Boston's largest sports arena. And many of these kiddies had never seen a circus before in their lives.

Yes, Noble, you did it before, let's do it again. Join the Aleppo Temple Daddy Club, NOW. If you have not already made returns on the book of tickets sent you for our sixth and biggest circus of all, mail a check at once for $10.00 to the circus committee and enclose as many tickets from the book as you are not going to use yourself or give away. Each ticket returned and paid for will send two youngsters as your guest to your Shrine Circus. A full book, which contains twelve tickets will send twenty-four kiddies.

If you want the thrill of your life, Noble, become a Circus Daddy and attend one of the shows in Boston Garden, Monday, September 30 through Sunday, October 6, and see for yourself what your membership in the Circus Daddy Club means to these kids. You will never forget it, and you will never regret it.

Send in your returns now, to Aleppo Temple Activities, 97 Huntington Avenue, Boston 16, Massachusetts, and have your name listed in Daddy Club List Number 3, to be published in the October issue of the ALEppo MONTHLY NEWS.

"IT AINT GONNA RAIN NO MORE"

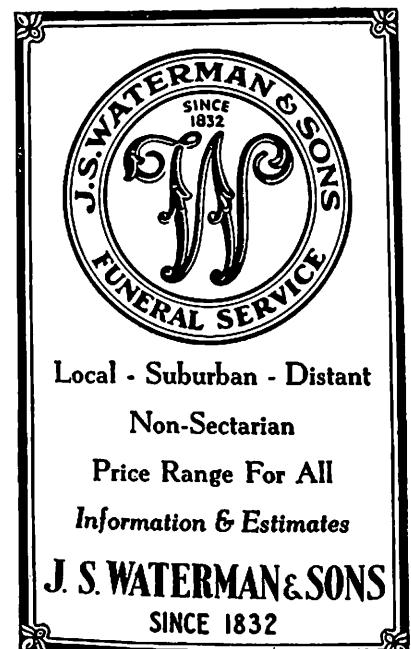

AUGUST has been a busy month for the band. First was the trip to St. John, N. B. and Bangor, Maine, in connection with the Annual Fall Field Day of the Northeastern Shrine Association.

We left Boston, August 7, in a driving rain, and it rained all the way to St. John and was still raining a little when we arrived in that city. We marched from the station to the Hotel Admiral Beatty, where a very substantial breakfast was served at 9:00 o'clock. Then at 12:00 o'clock they served luncheon, which included lobster. We passed that one up, even though it did look tempting, as there was a limit to our ability to absorb all that food in such a short period of time. At 5:00 o'clock an excellent dinner was served to which we did full justice.

It stopped raining in the forenoon and the sun came out strong for the afternoon parade.

St. John is a fine city and the folks are most hospitable. But, Gee! It is up hill both ways, although we suppose we did occasionally go down hill. However, the warm welcome we received made us forget the hills. One thing that puzzled us at first was the time. St. John time-pieces were an hour ahead of ours, and we tried to figure it out with Daylight Saving without avail, until we woke up to the fact that they operate on Atlantic time and dig the sun up earlier than we do in Boston.

Thursday evening the band played a concert from the bandstand opposite the hotel, and did a swell job, which was greatly appreciated by the big audience, judging by the applause which greeted each number.

SINCE 1832

At midnight the train pulled out for Bangor, after hooking on a couple of cars for the Luxor Temple boys. We understand there was a near accident on the way, and some of the boys were nearly pitched out of their berths, but we didn't even wake up.

Arriving in Bangor Friday A.M. with the sun shining bright, we marched to the Masonic Temple for breakfast, which was served in the banquet hall four long, long flights up. We also had lunch and dinner there, and breakfast and lunch on Saturday. A few more trips up those hills and four flights of stairs and we could qualify as an expert mountain climber.

Friday evening the band played a concert in the Auditorium, which was also a good performance.

Saturday noon was the big parade, then a shore dinner at the Armory in the evening. A ceremonial and display of fireworks wound up the festivities. Evidently the weather man thought we had not been baptized enough so sent rain all the evening. He was kind enough to give us bright sunny days for the outdoor activities, however.

Our drum major, Noble Frank Warren, could not be present at St. John, owing to his duties with the State Guard, so our former drum major, "Lew" Carpenter, was called in to pinch hit for him. It seemed like old times to see "Lew" swinging the baton at the head of the band again.

Taken by and large the meeting of the Northeastern Shrine Association was a grand good time. Both at St. John and Bangor we received a hearty welcome, and at Bangor even the pigeons were friendly birds, and while we were assembling at the station for the parade, dropped greeting cards on some of the boys. But strange to say such friendly gestures were not appreciated by the recipients.

The next pleasant event was on Saturday August 17, when the band went to Rindge, N. H., as guests of our Potentate, at his camp on the shores of beautiful Lake Contoocook, and to use a hackneyed expression of the country editors, "A good time was had by all." Our web-footed members enjoyed a swim in the lake and the rest of us sat around and admired the view, including the bathing beauties.

The Potentate proved to be the perfect host, and the dinner served at the Wood-bound Inn was simply great. The corn on the cob was the best ever; right out of the garden and plenty of it, and wonder of wonders a dish of butter in the middle of each table for the guests to help themselves.

After dinner we went to West Rindge, where, under the direction of the Potentate, a simple but impressive memorial service was held and a wreath placed upon the graves of the three boys from Rindge who had made the Supreme Sacrifice in World War II.

The band then gave a concert on the church lawn, which was attended by a large and appreciative audience, estimated to be near 5,000.

We arrived back at headquarters just before midnight, but by the time we had changed to "civies" it rained again. No wonder we headed this article with that familiar refrain.

Our hearty thanks to Potentate Palmer for a most enjoyable outing.

ANOTHER pleasant tour of duty, the first for several years, was enjoyed by the members of the uniformed units, August 7 to 11. The occasion was a one-day visit as guests of Luxor Temple at St. John, N. B., and a two-day visit with the Northeastern Shrine Association at Bangor, Maine.

Excellent arrangements were made for transportation, to arrive at 8 A.M. in St. John and Bangor as well as the return to Boston, on the scheduled days; an ideal hour to start the day. On Wednesday afternoon we left Boston in a downpour of rain and on our arrival at St. John, it was raining hard. After breakfast it cleared and we had a nice day in that quaint old city. The rendezvous was at the Admiral Beatty Hotel where we enjoyed three fine, well served meals. The parade started at three o'clock and we marched up and down more hills than I ever saw before. It must have been tough on the band members, but the men could do no less than emulate Major Vaughan, who maintained his usual military poise and finished with a smile. In the evening, our band gave a concert in the square and then the Second Platoon put on an exhibition drill, with lights, which attracted thousands. Although the street was roped off to divert traffic, in the vicinity of the hotel, there were hundreds in the rear of the crowds who stood on tiptoe but were unable to see anything at all. Bill Davis and Roy Gaskell were the self-appointed greeters for the day — Bill passed out cigars to the natives on the street cars — Roy furnished the cigars (?) The things that I remember about the day in St. John were the friendliness of the people of that old Canadian city, meeting the Government Officials of New Brunswick and St. John, the visit to the Masonic Temple, the peppy Kiltie band of Luxor Temple with its small membership of four hundred Nobles.

We left St. John at midnight and arrived at Bangor at the scheduled time. When I turned in there was no one in the upper berth over me, but while I was dressing in the morning and taking up plenty of space in the aisle, Harold Budreau slipped out of the upper berth, correctly dressed, all spic and span, to prove that there's plenty of space in that cubicle in which to dress, if you know how, which he, as an old railroad man, certainly knows. But I'd like to see any of those six footers of the First Platoon, like Arthur Holl or Dick Levine, do it without breaking his vertebrae. The march from the train to the Anah Headquarters was just long enough to sharpen our appetites for breakfast. We were free all day, so some of the men went on a bus trip to Bar Harbor, while others went to the State Fair or visited about town. It was a blistering hot day and there was no comfort at the Fair. During our two-day stay at Bangor all meals were served at Anah

Headquarters, and some considered that about four flights too many to negotiate, and so visited one of the local hosteries or restaurants. At seven in the evening, Anah's fine band gave a concert on the lawn outside the Auditorium and at eight o'clock our band gave a concert inside the Auditorium. Then the Aleppo Patrol, led by Captain Sharpe, put on a battalion drill, after long unavoidable delays. Imperial Potentate George H. Rowe was then received, to the music of Luxor Pipe Band, and afterwards there was dancing and entertainment until a late hour. On Saturday, the parade started at 12:30. The route was straight-away through the main streets, just a comfortable march. At five o'clock a shore dinner was served at the Armory to the several thousand Nobles — it was well organized and there was plenty for everybody. During the evening the Ceremonial was held at the Auditorium, highlighted by a fine address by Imperial Potentate Rowe. Altogether, it was a fine visit and the Anah folks were great hosts. The train left Bangor at 12:30 A.M. and we arrived at Boston more than an hour ahead of the scheduled time. There were but few casualties on the trip. Fred Wilder hurt his ankle stepping off a curb Friday night. We packed it in ice and Dr. Salerno promptly ordered an x-ray, which showed a split bone. So Fred did his parading in taxicabs. He has been confined at home for two weeks but expects to be about soon.

The meeting at Bangor also commemorated the twenty-fifth anniversary of Anah Temple. Some of the older members like Nobles Alcock, Basch, Chantler, Daland, Harvey, Hight and James, may remember the occasion of the patrol visit in 1922, which was also attended by Past Imperial Potentate "Sunny Jim" McCandless of Honolulu, and other Imperial Officers and units from Kora and Bektash Temples.

Incidentally, I note that Mt. Sinai Temple of Montpelier was the third Temple to organize, only preceded by Mecca and Damascus.

Next year the Imperial Sessions probably will be held at Buffalo or perhaps, Atlantic City. Harold Lloyd promises the finest celebration ever to be held at Los Angeles, when he reaches the top and perhaps a few years hence, when our present Imperial First Ceremonial Master, Judge Wilson, is the Head of Shriners, Boston will be the scene of the meeting, for the first time in history.

One of the hardest worked men on these trips is our Quartermaster, Charlie Taylor. For two or three weeks beforehand, he and Orrin Andrews, the latter volunteered to help, were busy at Mechanics Building, hauling out dusty old crates that hadn't been used for years, getting all the equipment together for shipping and en route, and while away, everybody was continually hollering for Charlie. One night he fell asleep on a trunk in the baggage room, with a razor in his outstretched hand Gosh!

The next tour of duty will be at the Ball Game, September 27.

George Gardner retired from the Police Force on August 3. A medical examination revealed that he is too fat — he says that he could have told them that himself. George also stepped down as State Commander of the American Legion, on August 22.

On July 31, Lieutenant Beckman and his Second Platoon had one of their periodic picnics with a visit to Dr. Beckman's home in Gloucester, a cruise in his boat and a dinner at the "Blacksmith Shop" at Rockport.

ORDER OF THE EASTERN STAR MEETS IN TAMPA, NOVEMBER 11-15

A GREAT deal of interest in this section is shown in the Eastern Star Tampa Convention and it is expected there will be a large delegation attend from New England.

A tour is being arranged to leave New England on November 1, going by rail with Pullman accommodations or seats in deluxe reserved seat coaches on Streamlined trains to Jacksonville, thence down the east coast of Florida in special private motorcoaches visiting Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Daytona, Palm Beach and Miami, thence across Southern Florida through the Everglades to the West Coast to Fort Myers, Sarasota and St. Petersburg. The tour is not hurried and includes many meals, good hotels at places visited and liberal sightseeing.

The main tour is of 19 days duration with an optional tour for members who haven't the time to be away so long and prefer to go direct and return with the party, taking about ten days. All tours are reasonably priced and make a most delightful vacation.

Descriptive literature and full information may be secured on application to C. C. Colpitts, Colpitts Tourist Company, 262 Washington Street, Boston, who has for many years handled convention tour arrangements for the organization.

ST. JOHN SHRINERS ENTERTAIN ALEPPO OFFICERS AND UNIFORMED UNITS

THE Aleppo Special, carrying the Officers and Uniformed Units to Bangor to participate in the celebration of the first Annual Fall Field Day of the Northeastern Shrine Association since the war, made a special 24-hour side trip to St. John, New Brunswick.

Arriving in the Canadian city, which is the home of Luxor Temple, they were greeted by the Illustrious Potentate, Frank A. Ryder and his Divan Officers, His Worship, Hon. James D. McKenna, Mayor of the City of St. John and Hon. D. Laurence MacLaren, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of New Brunswick.

Lieutenant Governor MacLaren, who has entertained many Boston Shriners and Ancients before, took time out from his executive duties and spent the entire day with the Aleppo Shriners. He honored the Nobles by reviewing the parade at the head of King Street and with Mrs. MacLaren attended the band concert given by the Aleppo Band in the evening.

The purpose of the trip to St. John was to pay a fraternal visit to Potentate Ryder, who is an Honorary Member of Aleppo Temple and to participate in a Shrine parade and Band Concert by the Aleppo Temple Shrine Band.

The Aleppo contingent was very graciously received by the Shriners and the citizens of New Brunswick who have a warm spot in their hearts for the Nobles across the border and who always welcome Aleppo with open arms.

Potentate Palmer, his Divan Officers and the Nobles of the Uniformed Units wish to thank Potentate Ryder, the Nobles of Luxor and the people of St. John for the memory of a wonderful trip.

Mayor McKenna, after reviewing the parade and listening to the band concert by Aleppo's band, invited the Officers of Aleppo Temple to his executive offices in City Hall, where he told them that the visitation of the Shriners from Boston brought out the largest crowd he had ever seen in the City of St. John, exceeding even the record crowd that gathered in that city for the V-J celebration.

The boys of Aleppo appreciate the welcome they received and the tremendous applause given them all along the line of march.

Upon his return home, Illustrious Potentate Palmer received a letter of appreciation from His Worship, Mayor McKenna for the visitation of the Shriners of Boston to the City of St. John. Mayor McKenna's letter follows:

"Mayor's Office

"Aleppo Temple
"Boston, Mass.
"Dear Brother Palmer:

"My initial duty as Mayor this morning is to write you and express to you not only my personal appreciation of the visit of Aleppo Temple A.A.O.N.M.S., to Saint John but to thank you and the Temple on behalf of the citizens of this city for the OFFICERS OF ALEPPO TEMPLE, A.A.O.N.M.S. OF BOSTON, called on Mayor James D. McKenna of St. John, N. B., during their recent visit to the Canadian city, accompanied by Henry D. Hopkins, Recorder of Luxor Temple, St. John.

The visiting Shriners signed the Mayor's guest book, inspected the original copy of the city's charter, and evidenced considerable interest in the Mayor's "chain" which His Worship was wearing.

LOST NOBLES

KEEPING a correct list of the names and addresses of 11,000 Shriners is no small job. Your Recorder receives an average of six changes in address every day or over 2,000 per year. The six per day sounds small but the 2,000 entails a considerable amount of work. However, the Recorder's office is not concerned about the work as much as it is about the scores of men who change their address and do not notify the office for months later. If you change your address, Noble, notify the Recorder of Aleppo Temple as well as the Recorder or Secretary of all your Fraternal organizations immediately.

Many men have missed out on Ceremonials and other functions because their mail was late in arriving, due to a wrong address, necessitating the forwarding of his mail.

Look at the envelope this notice was mailed in and see if your address is correct. If not, notify this office at once. Your Recorder is just as anxious for you to receive your Shrine mail as you are.

If you know any of these Nobles and are sure of the present mailing address, please advise him we are looking for him. You will be doing a double favor.
